

Local Population Studies Society, Autumn Conference 2013

Lancaster University, Bailrigg, Lancaster: Saturday 16th November 2013

Immigrant Communities in Britain

Sponsored by University of Lancaster, The Social History Society and LPSS.

9.45-10.30 Registration, tea/coffee

10.30-12.45 Panel One

Colin Pooley (Lancaster University): 'Introduction: The meaning and significance of immigration'

Don MacRaild (University of Ulster) 'The Irish in Victorian Britain: some new light on questions, sources and methods.'

Caroline Bressey, (University College London) 'The Black Presence in Late Victorian London'

12.45-1.45 Lunch

1.45-3.05 Panel Two

Fiona Frank (Scottish Council of Jewish Communities and University of Strathclyde) 'Being Jewish in Scotland'

Kathy Burrell (Liverpool University) 'Five Journeys: the changing contexts of being Polish in the UK, c1939-2010'.

3.05-3.30 Tea

3.30-4.50 Panel Three

Wendy Ugolini (Edinburgh University) 'Using oral testimonies to recover Italian Scottish experience in the twentieth century'

Nissa Finney (Manchester University) 'Places of immigrant settlement and spread in post-WWII Britain'.