

Contents

| | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|-----|
| EDITORIAL | | 1 |
| NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS | | 4 |
| SPECIAL ISSUE ARTICLES | | |
| Roger Schofield as Historian and Demographer: an Appreciation | Richard Smith | 6 |
| Taking Forward Roger's Interest in the Relationship between the Early Modern Family, Demography, Economy and Government Policy | Simon Szreter | 31 |
| 'I Think it Highly Necessary to Have it Done before They Go Out into the World': Inoculation, Responsibility and Patterns of Familial Transmission of Smallpox in the Eighteenth Century | Rosemary Leadbeater | 37 |
| Plague and Poor Relief in Cambridge, 1665–1666 | Samantha Williams | 47 |
| Literacy, Social Structure and Local Social Dramas | David Cressy | 56 |
| The Rich Past and Desiccated Future of Parish Register Demography | David Levine | 68 |
| Taxation, Writs, and Populations—Roger Schofield Measures History | DeLloyd J. Guth | 80 |
| GENERAL ARTICLES | | |
| Tenement Size and Social Difference: Reflections on Chepstow in 1901 | Robert Gant | 87 |
| Cross-Correlation of Numbers of Baptisms and Burials in Sixteenth-Century Parish Registers: an Exploratory Analysis | Michael J. Slater | 120 |
| Review of Recent Periodical Literature | William Farrell and Andrew Hinde | 136 |