

CONTENTS

Editorial: Sampling particular instance papers — a recent PRO seminar.	4
News from the SSRC Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure	6
The social structure of an industrial community: Ivinghoe in Buckinghamshire in 1871 C. A. and P. Horn	9
The Marriage Duty Acts and the social topography of the early modern town: Shrewsbury, 1695-8 James Hindson	21
The study of illegitimacy from Kirk Session Records: two eighteenth-century Perthshire parishes Leah Leneman	29
Local population studies in schools (4): computer aided study Beverley Labbett	34
Notes and Queries
The nineteenth-century British census enumerators' books Carol Pearce, Dennis Mills, Ros Davies and Richard Wall	40
Farm labour in mid-nineteenth century Warwickshire Rosemary Peek	42
Some recent publications	52
Miscellany
The census — a nineteenth century playbill	61
Correspondence
The overcrowding survey LPS 29	62
A hammer to crack a nut? A new approach to the study of marriage horizons, LPS 28	62
The Hampshire Record Office: fees for access to records not in mind	63
Local research in progress	66